

I'm pro-active, positive and do what I say I will.

This a really powerful behaviour once embedded.

What would it take for your team to use the same words to describe the way you lead and manage them?

Take one issue or situation that's on your mind right now. How can you take action, stay on track and above all follow through on the things you know are needed?