

It's About People

Leadership is not a position on a structure chart.
Nor is it about being at the top or controlling others.

Leadership is about people, not you.

It's about discovering, nurturing and growing the potential of those around you.

Leadership is about being bold, stepping into the gap,
assuming responsibility and taking people somewhere.