

Understand or Respond?

Listening is not just about hearing words;
it's about truly understanding others.

Reflect on your listening skills and ask yourself:
Am I genuinely seeking to understand different perspectives, or am I simply waiting to respond?

Practice active listening and suspend your own judgements to foster deeper connections.