

make people
feel
loved
today

Building healthier teams

Professionalism and Kindness

Professionalism doesn't just mean adherence to standards; it's about weaving kindness into every interaction.

Recall an instance where kindness changed the outcome of a patient interaction. How can we continue to embed this warmth into our professionalism?