

Culture Carrier

As a leader, your behaviour sets the standard for your team.

Think of yourself as a culture carrier – the person everyone looks to for guidance on what's acceptable, encouraged, and valued.

The question then is, what culture are you carrying into your team every day?